

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Charterhouse Chapel.

EDITED BY

FRANCIS COLLINS, Esq., M.D.,

FORMERLY RESIDENT MEDICAL OFFICER OF THE CHARTERHOUSE.

LONDON:

1892.

Preface.

THE earliest Register of Charterhouse Chapel contains entries of Marriages from 1671 to 1754; of Baptisms from 1695 to 1812; and of Burials from 1695 to 1812. There are also in it a few memoranda of more or less genealogical interest, and entries of two Marriages solemnized respectively in 1837 and 1839.

There are four other volumes of Registers. One containing Baptisms from 1813 to the present time, and in this there is an entry of a Marriage solemnized in 1837. In another volume, labelled Marriages, there is only one entry, viz., in 1839. A third is a Register of all Marriages from 1857 to the present time. And the fourth contains all the Burials from 1813 to 1854, when the Burial-ground in Charterhouse was closed. In this Register there are also some later entries relating, chiefly, to the burials of the Poor Brothers who, for the most part, were interred in Bow Cemetery. A set of Marriage Licences, the earliest of which is dated 1671 and the latest 1754, has been collected and bound up in two volumes, forming a valuable addition to the earliest Register.

On one of the fly-leaves of the earliest Register is the following:—
“Memorandum. June 24th. 1702. There was given to the Charterhouse Chappell to be used att the Altar One fine wrought Silver Cup, Double Gilt, with a cover of fine wrought flowered work to it, by Mr. Edward Hooker, Student in Physick, Pensioner of the House.”

“It is stated in Smythe’s ‘History of Charterhouse,’ published 1808, that this benefaction was stolen, with other valuables, from the Charterhouse Chapel, in the night of the 4th of September 1797.

“May 24th, 1873.

“HENRY V. LE BAS, Preacher.”

Volume I. of the Licences contains the following memorandum on one of the fly-leaves: "These Licences were thus arranged at the suggestion of Charles Young, Esqr., York Herald (a Carthusian), by the Rev. William Hale Hale, Preacher. " March 1826."

In Volume II. there is an almost similar entry, but rather more explanatory: "These Licences, hitherto suffered to remain in the Vestry in a heap of Rubbish, were thus arranged at the suggestion of Charles Young, Esqr., York Herald (a Carthusian),

"By the Rev. WILLIAM HALE HALE,
" Preacher of the Charterhouse."

" March 1826.

The Licences are, unfortunately, not arranged in strict chronological order, but as each is numbered, in this transcript, the number has been added, in brackets, to the Marriage for which it was the authority, so that there may be no difficulty in comparing the entry in the Register with the Licence, where such is considered advisable. Any matters of interest to be found in the Licences which the Register does not contain have also been added in a similar manner. These additions include differences in spelling. Among the Licences are five of which there is no entry in the Register recording the solemnization of the Marriage. Copies of these have been placed after the last Marriage solemnized in 1754, and following them will be found the few genealogical notes noticed above.

As only nineteen Marriages are recorded in the Registers, subsequent to 1754, all are given in this Volume. The Baptisms have been transcribed down to the time the Registration Act came in force, 1st March 1837, and the Burials to the closing of the Charterhouse Burial-ground in 1854.

At the end of the Volume will be found the inscriptions on all the monuments and gravestones in the Chapel, Chapel Cloister, and the few remaining in the old Burial-ground. These latter have been built into the wall which separates Charterhouse from Wilderness Row, now better known as Clerkenwell Road. The description of the armorial bearings on the monuments was kindly undertaken by Mr. J. W. CLAY, F.S.A., to whom the thanks of the Society are due, as well as to the Rev. Canon ELWYN, the Master of the Charterhouse, and to the Rev. H. VINCENT LE BAS, the Preacher, to both of whom the Compiler is indebted for helping him in his work, and giving him the opportunity of making this Volume as complete as possible; and to the latter also for assisting to clear up several doubtful entries in the Register. Of Mr. DANIEL HIPWELL, of Hildrop Crescent, it is due to say that it was entirely through him that the Transcript became the property of the Society, and he also deserves thanks for contributing several corrections and valuable suggestions; and Mr. H. MOXON GIBSON, of Charterhouse, most kindly aided by furnishing corrections from the Records in the Registrar's Office.

FRANCIS COLLINS.

O God the Creator of all things whose Mercy is infinite and whose Wisdom is incomprehensible, before thee do I humbly prostrate myself to the Earth and to thee do I freely commit my Spirit because I well know and do trust that the same kind Providence which brought me into this World and gave Milk out of my Mother's breast for my immediate Nourishment will as certainly preside over my Death and dispose of my immortal Part in such a Manner as will be most suitable to its future Existence. All thy Works silently praise thee O great and beneficent Creator: even we in the Grave who are sown in Corruption to be raised in Glory as revealed to Mankind by thy son Jesus Christ; for thy Power is above all thought and thy Goodness exceedeth all Measure and they endure for ever and ever. Amen.
